Friends of the Somerset Rural Life Museum

please join us: your help is needed

The shop is run entirely by Friends

Three times a year Friends produce a newsletter

Other activities include agricultural shows and tourism fairs

Assistance is given in conserving and recording artefacts, vital to the development of the Museum collections. We always need help with the transcription of oral recordings. Publicity and marketing costs are reduced by Friends delivering leaflets.

Friends have built up an oral archive of Somerset people

Friends lead activities for school groups

Come to the next Open Day and see how you can become involved
